A Message From The Board of Directors of the Casino Collectibles Association.

April 21, 2020 - CCA President Jerry Vergatos, received an email from the South Point Hotel and Casino, advising that they would begin the process of sending out cancellation notices of room reservations for our Convention Block of rooms. In a reply, Jerry asked for a brief delay, so that the Board could advise the entire membership in advance, which would also include advisement of what this means for Registered attendees and Dealers.

Regrettably, the South Point began sending cancellation notices within minutes of the initial email.

Admission for all children 13 and younger is FREE any day when accompanied by an adult. Check in at the CCA Registration Desk prior to entry.

CONTINUING FROM PAGE 1 - Board of Directors Message...

The Board was in a position to post an Announcement that same day, that we monitoring everything and had planned to decide and announce on May 1st, as to whether or not the Board wanted to go forward or cancel the Convention, unless our decision became superseded by an act of the South Point or the Governor of Nevada.

It now appears that our own announcement has been superseded, and based on the notification to Jerry Vergatos, from the South Point, our 2020 Convention is canceled. The Board will soon post and email information regarding disposition of Pre-Registration and Dealer Sign-Up funds, as well as other pertinent information regarding cancellation of the 2020 Convention.

The CCA Board of Directors

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Greeting Fellow Club Members
Undoubtedly everyone has heard that the Convention this year has been canceled due to the pandemic that has besieged us. This was not an easy decision for your Board members to make, as the process of unraveling all the work done so far, is massive. Our Convention Chair, Steve Palumbo, in his third Convention, had everything well taken care of, as well as all of our other Chairpersons associated with every facet of events to be conducted at the Show. The Board wishes to thank them for their dedication and diligence in performing their duties.

They are: in no particular order:

The main concern, and it will always be our concern, are the safety and well being of all our Club members. We will all get through this and hopefully, for the better. Please keep in touch through the various social media outlets, phone calls, and email, to see that everyone is staying healthy and safe.

I hope this will all be behind us next year so that we can have another great show and make up for lost time

SO THE CONVENTION IS CANCELED...

WHAT HAPPENS NOW?...

Writing this update has been an exceedingly difficult task, as it has begun a process of unraveling all the hard work our Convention Chairpersons have been preparing for since our 2019 Convention concluded. There have been many questions asked, and this FAQ should help in answering all of them.

Convention Table Payments

All existing payments made will be held as a credit for next year's (2021) Convention. This will protect you from any possible increase in fees in 2021, which you will not be charged. If this is not acceptable, then you will need to contact Steve Palumbo at stloathome@aol.com to make other arrangements.

Bruce Landau Memorial Auction

All consignment items in possession of the Club, will be held for next year's Auction (2021). All donated items will also be kept for next year's Auction, with the appropriate acknowledgment of the donors. For further details contact either, Jay Sands at jaychip@sbcglobal.net or David Spragg at david.spragg@zen.co.uk

Raffle

There are two options: 1. A refund on your tickets. 2. Retain purchased tickets for the 2021 Raffle. Those who purchased tickets and wish to hold on to them for the 2021 Convention, will receive an extra ticket(s) for the 2021 Raffle. They would receive one extra ticket for every, already made, $25 accumulation of Raffle ticket purchases. For further details contact Doug Smith at msmith310@aol.com

Pre-Registration

Pre-Registration payments have been rolled over to the 2021 Convention. You will be automatically Pre-Registered for 2021 (at the South Point). If you wish to have your pre-payment refunded please contact George D at georged@mindspring.com

Convention Advertising

All fees paid for the Convention Program are fully refundable or may be carried over to next year. For details please contact Nate Pincus at nate@chipcollector.com

2019 OTY AWARDS BALLOTING IS OPEN!

Hello fellow CCA'ers, the 2019 CCA OTY Awards are still on!

Like many of you, I was not surprised to hear that our June Convention was canceled, considering the safety of our Members. While I am so disappointed that I will not be able to see all of my CCA buddies, I completely understand that it was the right decision. After all, we want to make sure that everyone stays healthy, so we can visit and have a great time in June 2021.

To keep some fun interaction & tradition going, we are continuing with the 2019 CCA OTY Awards. The final Nominees are in, so it's time to cast your votes! Each member is allowed to vote for 3 nominees, in each of the 3 open OTY categories. We have a weighted point system that will determine the final winners. Here is a breakdown of how it works:

- Your 1ST Place vote will be awarded FIVE (5) points.
- Your 2ND Place vote will be awarded THREE (3) points.
- Your 3RD Place vote will be awarded ONE (1) point.

You can only vote for any Nominee just once, in each category. You are not permitted to use all of your votes for a single choice.

The chip, silver strike & slot card/key that gets the most total points after all the of the votes have been counted will be declared victorious and earn the 2019 CCA OTY honors, clenching it's spot among our other past OTY Award winners! Consider your favorites and cast your votes wisely. A single point may decide the next winner!

All of the raffle prizes indicated in my article in the last issue of the Casino Collectibles News for those that participate in this year's contest will still be awarded. We have not figured out the details yet so I will announce as soon as they are worked out. Based on other communications that we have seen, we will most likely distribute prizes that will be valid at the 2021 Convention.

Please send me your 1ST, 2ND, & 3RD place picks, indicated by the matching letter, and specify each category that you are voting on. As a reminder, I have 2 different email addresses that you may send your votes to OTY@CCGTCC.com or ink2179@juno.com.

Our deadline for voting will be Sunday, May 17th at midnight. Winners will be announced June 17th, as a special CCA Newsletter (EXTRA EXTRA) blast, as well as being posted on the Club's website, Message Board, Facebook page and other social media locations.

I want to thank all of our Members that sent in Nominations! Stay safe everyone! I hope to hear from you soon!

A NEW EDUCATIONAL PROJECT IS ANNOUNCED...

"Educational Webinars"

Coming Soon: Educational Webinars!

Brenda Riemer, Education Director

This year I had a wonderful line up scheduled for our CCA Convention. Unfortunately, COVID-19 has changed our plans. I have asked our speakers for this year to consider speaking at our 2021 Convention. To date, everyone has said yes. But many of us also know that waiting two years to communicate and see people can be difficult for an organization. I want to thank Charles Kaplan for suggesting that I consider webinars to tide us over.

I am envisioning a webinar twice a month, starting either in mid-May or in June. Charles has volunteered to do the first one on the topic of the Chip Guide. For those of you who attend his seminars at the Convention, just when you think you know everything about the guide, Charles has new information to share. I am going to strive to schedule a variety of topics for the membership. One suggestion has been for the webinars to be held in the evening, 9 pm. Eastern (8 pm. Central, 7 p.m. Mountain, 6 p.m. Pacific, and 3 p.m. Hawaiian). I am still looking at webhosting options. I am considering Zoom, the version that supports 100 participants. I will be discussing all options with the Board.

Please feel free to email me if you have thoughts about what you would like to see in a seminar. For those of you who write about your trips for the magazine, I'd love for you to consider being one of our speakers and sharing more details about planning casino trips.

The Silver Strikers Club

In a letter from Shaun Webster, Director of Slots, Four Queens Hotel & Casino, Las Vegas, NV, on April 8, 2020, the following is provided.

"To our Silver Strike Family,

Due to the uncertainty of when we may open and the restrictions that may be put on us as far as gatherings in a room, we are going to have to move the June [2020] Silver Strike Tournament. At this time, we do not have a date set as we all wait for this virus to take its course. All of us at the Four Queens hope you and your families are staying safe. When we have better knowledge as to what is going to happen, I will post the new date for the Tournament.

The Theme for the Tournament will be, "NOSE CONE BEAUTIES". "

The Corona Virus - COVID-19 has closed all casino operations in Nevada. This closure has also implemented a delay in plans to open the MoGH's newer Milestone Projects. Accordingly, we are on-hold with the Terrible's, Jean, Nevada and Legendary Stardust Projects. Our hosts have asked us to temporarily delay our efforts to acquire material for these Projects.

Loaners and Donors are asked to please hold off from sending any additional material. Material already sent, will be held and is being securely protected.

Thank you,

Back Page, Well-Being, Photo Contest for CCA Members...

While we recognize the seriousness of the pandemic, that surrounds all of us, we also know that a majority of our members are following the stay at home advisement. We certainly appreciate those among you that are Essential Workers, and we thank you dearly for your involvements.

We also know that several of our members have been infected with the virus and to-date, all have recovered

In following the pulse of our membership on the various Social Media outlets, we also know that many of our members are at home, doing many catch-up projects. Spring cleaning, painting the house, reading books, doing jigsaw puzzles, putting on a great Show 'n Tell of their collections and posting pictures of how they are spending their casual time.

Accordingly, we have decided to offer a contest to our CCA Members, asking them to submit pictures of their casual activities during this time. The back page(s) of the CCA Newsletter will feature these pictures, beginning with our next issue, at which point we will also announce details of Contest Rules and prizes to be awarded.

Please email your entries to:
vergatos@msn.com for consideration.

Speaking of "Vegatos" here is a casual pic of our leader from earlier this week, please send suggested captions to Jim@GamingOre.com and I will post them in the next issue.

Thank you everyone, and please stay safe!
