PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Hello again to my fellow Club members and Friends. With great anticipation, news of the casinos opening back up has everyone ready for some fun and excitement. I am still very cautious and leery as there are so many different announcements concerning the safety of venturing out. Caution and vigilance look to be the order of the day.

Personally, I am not too anxious to expose myself to the virus until there is more positive information. Our membership consists primarily of older people who are highly susceptible. I sincerely hope that anyone venturing out, to use extreme caution and follow the guidelines that are set up to protect you. We all want to be around next year to enjoy the 2021 Convention.

In order to salvage a small facet of our cancelled 2020 Convention I will be announcing on June 17, in a special EXTRA EXTRA edition of the Newsletter, all the awards that the Club bestows at the Early Bird Banquet. Please see the announcement in this newsletter of all the categories and be sure to view the Newsletter that will be going out. Until our next issue I wish everyone to be safe and healthy.

ON THE DOCKET...

CCA Board Actions through May, 2020

Poker Tournament Proposal -

Brought forward by Club member Richard Huber was a suggestion to conduct an online Poker Tournament in lieu of the Gene Trimble Memorial Poker Tournament held annually at our Convention.

Action: Approved unanimously with stipulations that this was not a Club sponsored event and the Club was not liable for any issues pertaining to the tournament. A donation to the Club will be tendered upon completion.

Leadership Change for the MoGH -

A recommendation was received from the MoGH Board to name Steve Palumbo, MoGH Vice Chairman, as the new Chairman of the Museum of Gaming, replacing Mike Quinlivan.

Action: Approved unanimously

Janice O'Neal Memorial Book of the Year Award -

Upon recommendations from Club members and our internal choices a vote was conducted by the BoD and a winner was selected to-be-announced on June 17 in a special edition of the CCA Newsletter.

The Harvey J Fuller Award for Article of the Year Award -

Upon recommendations by the Club's "Casino Collectibles Magazine" Editors, as well as our internal choices, a vote was conducted by the BoD and a winner was selected to-be-announced on June 17 in a special edition of the CCA Newsletter.

A REMINDER.....

SO THE CONVENTION WAS CANCELED...

WHAT HAPPENS NOW?...

Writing this update has been an exceedingly difficult task, as it has begun a process of unraveling all the hard work our Convention Chairpersons have been preparing for since our 2019 Convention concluded. There have been many questions asked, and this FAQ should help in answering all of them.

Convention Table Payments

All existing payments made will be held as a credit for next year's (2021) Convention. This will protect you from any possible increase in fees in 2021, which you will not be charged. If this is not acceptable, then you will need to contact Steve Palumbo at stloathome@aol.com to make other arrangements.

Bruce Landau Memorial Auction

All consignment items in possession of the Club, will be held for next year's Auction (2021). All donated items will also be kept for next year's Auction, with the appropriate acknowledgment of the donors. For further details contact either, Jay Sands at jaychip@sbcglobal.net or David Spragg at david.spragg@zen.co.uk

Raffle

There are two options: 1. A refund on your tickets. 2. Retain purchased tickets for the 2021 Raffle. Those who purchased tickets and wish to hold on to them for the 2021 Convention, will receive an extra ticket(s) for the 2021 Raffle. They would receive one extra ticket for every, already made, $25 accumulation of Raffle ticket purchases. For further details contact Doug Smith at msmith310@aol.com

Pre-Registration

Pre-Registration payments have been rolled over to the 2021 Convention. You will be automatically Pre-Registered for 2021 (at the South Point). If you wish to have your pre-payment refunded please contact George D at georged@mindspring.com

Convention Advertising

All fees paid for the Convention Program are fully refundable or may be carried over to next year. For details please contact Nate Pincus at nate@chipcollector.com

South Point's CCA Room Block, Hotel Reservations

If you made your hotel reservation with the South Point, using the CCA Event Code, you should have already received an e-mail Cancellation Notice, with a full refund.

If you did not use the Club's Event Code, you will have to notify the hotel directly and cancel your reservation on your own. You can contact the South Point, on their reservation line at: 866-791-7626.

Active (continuing) Event Notices

OTY Awards

Voting is currently on-goin. Awards will be given out this year, for OTY 2019, with the winners to be announced on Wednesday, June 17, 2020. For further details contact Trey Warren at link2179@juno.com.

Robert "Bob" Mera, Recruiter of the Year Award

Will also be given to the Club member who has recruited the most, new members, in 2019. Winner will be announced on Wednesday, June 17, 2020.

CCA President's Award

Awarded to the individual(s) who have demonstrated the greatest achievements for the betterment of the Club, will be announced with all the other Awards on Wednesday, June 17, 2020.

Greg Susong Award

The recipient will be announced on Wednesday, June 17, 2020. Voting is currently, in-progress, through May 15, 2020.

Janice O'Neal, Book of the Year Award

Presented for the best book written by a CCA member during 2019, will be awarded on Wednesday, June 17, 2020.

Harvey J. Fuller, Article of the Year Award

The Award, which is presented to the Club member submitting a highly regarded article to the Club Magazine, will be announced on Wednesday, June 17, 2020.

MoGH Chairman's Award

This goes to a CCA Club member, as selected by the Chairman of the Museum of Gaming History, who has demonstrated excellent service in the betterment of The MoGH.

Casino Collectibles Association, Hall of Fame

Inductee(s) results will be announced on Wednesday, June 17, 2020 by Hall of Fame Chairman, Mark Lighterman.

MEMORIAL ONLINE POKER TOURNAMENT

Convention? No - Poker Tournament? Yes

Sponsored by:

Richard Huber - LM-3053-226 and past Membership Officer

Steve Bedo - LM-5259-111 and past Membership Officer

Disclaimer: The Casino Collectibles Association is not liable for any money or the management of the tournament.

We are planning a poker tournament for CCA members and a fund raiser for the CCA. Here are the basic facts. The Buy-In will be $100 (USD) of which $20 of every entry will be donated to the CCA. Cost for a trophy to the winner will be taken and then 100% of the remaining (minus any PayPal fees) will be awarded to the top finishing players.

The number of players paid is always determined by the total number of entrants. All players must be CCA members in good standing, valid through June 30, 2020. The tournament will be held on Poker Stars (10K starting chips), as many of you already play on Poker Stars. I have selected June 20, 2020, at 12:00 (Noon) PST as the starting time. This will give the East Coast enough time to play and maybe even Europe, as it is about 8-9 hours ahead.

How do I play? Here are the basics.

1. Have a Poker Stars Account and Nickname

a. Download Poker Stars (PS) software from www.pokerstars.net and sign up (No Ipad).

b. Give yourself a poker Nickname

2. Once you have a PS nickname, email me with your Nickname, and your CCA membership number.

a. My Email is burbankchipper@aol.com

b. I will then verify your membership status

c. I will then email further instructions on getting into the tournament

3. Send $100 (USD) via PayPal, Venmo or check - Do NOT mention poker in the payment, just note: "CC-PT"

a. PayPal -- Hubeedoo@aol.com

b. Venmo -- Steve-Bedo @Steve-Bedo

c. Check -- Richard Huber 1534 N. California St. Burbank, CA 91505 (Make check payable: Richard Huber)

4. After 1-3 are completed, you can then log into Poker Stars and sign up for the game. Sign-ups start June 6, 2020 at 12:00 PST (noon).

5. If you are not now a CCA member, you can join by going to the web site noted below, fill out the form and use my name (Richard Huber) as your sponsor. The Membership Officer will Let me know when he gives you a Membership number, confirming your membership. Use the following link to join --

<http://www.ccggtcc.com/promo/newmember.html>

6. Because all of the required steps that need to be done, we cannot guarantee your entrance into the game. If that should occur your money will be refunded.

This is time sensitive. Act now to play and support the CCA!

NEW RELEASES

CCA Member Paul Schaffer, advises us that based on data extracted from ChipGuide, these are some of the recent, new releases. Thanks Paul, and Thank You to the ChipGuide

May 7, 2020

Dear The Casino Chip & Gaming Token Collectors Club Inc.,

We grow more excited with each passing day for our upcoming World's Fair of Money[®] in Pittsburgh as the country begins to re-open for business. Your ANA has been planning for this show for months and has adjusted programs to accommodate so many "what ifs" associated with the coronavirus. We are planning to have a terrific World's Fair of Money beginning August 4 – it will take government action to prevent us from holding the show.

We anticipate that our show could very well unleash months of pent up demand to buy, sell and trade. We are fielding calls every day from new vendors who want to exhibit at our world-class event, and our bourse plan is responsive to these needs to include the latest additions. We proudly continue our tradition of bringing you world-class ANA-sponsored auctions presented by Heritage and Stack's Bowers that you will not want to miss!

While we realize that there is uncertainty ahead, we are adapting and adjusting to continue moving forward. This is an advantage we have over larger organizations as our small, tight-knit staff can respond very quickly to matters as they arise. Throughout the coming weeks, ANA Convention Director Jennifer Ackerman has committed to keeping you informed as to the latest events as they unfold.

We look forward to seeing you in Pittsburgh!

Sincerely,

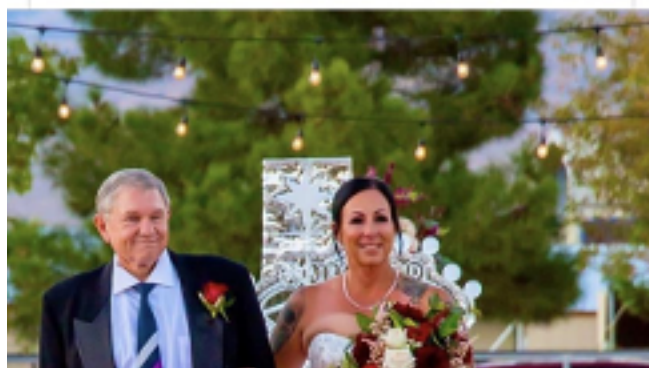

Steve Ellsworth

Sadly saying Good Bye to a friend to the hobby and a friend to many of us. Mike Spinetti -RIP- 1949 - 2020

For the past 7 weeks my dad Michael Spinetti has been fighting a silent battle with cancer, on March 31st he went into a local hospital for a life saving procedure and after a series of unfortunate events that left him in a weakened state he was unable to prevail over his fight with cancer. On May 21st he lost his battle and is no longer with us.. we feel so fortunate to be able to have spent the past 4 weeks at home caring for him! We will let everyone know when his celebration of life is. Because of covid and travel restrictions we are thinking we will have to have it in a month or two from now. RIP DAD!!! you will be so missed but i am relieved your no longer in pain ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️

NEWS from The MoGH...

The Museum of Gaming History is disappointed to announce that our Chairman, Mike Quinlivan, has officially relinquished his title as Chairman of the Board of Directors, and as a Board member.

All of us with the MoGH would like to personally thank Mike for his years of hard work and dedication to the MoGH. Mike has done many great things in helping us to grow and plan for the future.

Thank You Mike!!!

COVID-19 woes...

Like so much of the rest of the country the MoGH has been impacted by the virus. We have several projects that have been temporarily put on hold by the lock down.

One of the MoGH's most immediate concerns was to find a replacement for our former Chairman, Mike Quinlivan. The remaining Board members went through the process to recommend a candidate to the CCA Board. That candidate was Approved by the CCA Board, and I am pleased to be that individual. The MoGH Board will now go through the process to appoint a Vice-Chairman, to replace me.

Our work to create a Legendary Stardust Tribute Project remains on-hold. Hopefully, Jim Follis's great work on this project will continue soon, as June 4th will be the first day of casino re-openings in Las Vegas.

Before the virus struck we had nearly reached completion on a deal with Terrible's Casino in Jean, NV to do a presentation of 3, MoGH Milestone display cases. Jerry Vergatos has done a great job on negotiating these displays. Again, our work for Terrible's will probably be delayed until August.

One of our near term Projects and goals is to fill-in several Board of Director vacancies and possibly even expanding the Board by several members. If you have an interest in being hands-on in the future development of the MoGH, please contact myself, Steven Palumbo, at: stloathome@aol.com.

The MoGH is presently working to create larger and steadier revenue flows and is thus working to creating a Fund Raising Committee and Action Plan. This was identified as one of our greatest needs to long term growth and is therefore our biggest short term concern and objective.

The MoGH has been discussing an actual museum location with the Circus Circus Hotel and Casino. They have a space that might be perfect for the MoGH. Although the virus and sale of the Circus Circus have created some short term stumbling blocks, the possibility still exists that the Museum of Gaming History could finally become a real, brick and mortar reality.

An important part of making our goal, to build a real museum a reality, is planning and having a Business Plan. The Board of Directors held a 2-day event in February with long time consultant Sandra Harris.

Out of this event Ms Harris put together a combined short term and long term Business Plan for the MoGH. This included not only the necessary planning elements, but a profit and loss guide with a detailed expense plan outlined for opening a 18,000 square foot museum. The revenues, costs and expenses can be readily adjusted for differing square footages and locations. The MoGH is continuing to move forward. All of us with the Board of Directors of the Museum of Gaming History would like to take this time to wish all of our members and their families, good health and well being during these difficult times.

Thank you,

Steve Palumbo, MoGH Chairman

Thank you Charles Kaplan!

On Wednesday, May 27th, Charles presented the 1st MoGH Webinar/Seminar, as announced last month by Brenda Riemer, CCA Education Director.

Charles filed this Report:

Admins and MoGH Board,
Last night 27 collectors attended my webinar, Organizing Your Collection with the ChipGuide. The webinar was recorded and uploaded to YouTube.

Here is the link: Organizing Your Casino Collectibles With The ChipGuide

Participants were also treated to a preview of a new ChipGuide feature that will Go Live in the next week. Watch for the announcement. [See below map.]

The webinar went fairly smoothly, I asked all participants to mute their audio and video when the webinar started, but not all understood how to do it, so there is some background noise in places. I will figure out how to control it from my end a little better.

I am planning to do another video for YouTube, an introduction to the ChipGuide. It will be much shorter than the 1 hour webinar, maybe 10 minutes or so.

For those here that see the various references about The MoGH's ChipGuide, this is an excellent resource where the ChipGuide's Webmaster, Charles Kaplan, has hosted the First of what the MoGH hopes to present on a regular basis for its parent organization, the Casino Collectables Association.

This 1st webinar presents details of the Members-Only features of ChipGuide. It is a great tutorial on how to tag the images in ChipGuide as representations of your own collection, along with tagging images to show others what items you want to add to your collection, which items you have extras/traders, and how ChipGuide can assist in making trades by comparing want lists to trade lists.

And lastly, it introduces a new ChipGuide feature the "Top 10's to 100!" This project is an effort to see what are the top, most favored chips, tokens, plaques, dice, matchbooks, ashtrays, jetons, Silver Strikes, and more.

As a ChipGuide Admin, MoGH Board member and officer of the Casino Collectables Association, I invite everyone to visit the link and thank Charles, also a MoGH Board member, for his dedication and expertise in managing ChipGuide.

Hello to all my fellow club members.

I hope everyone is healthy and safe. It seems like an eternity since we last met. I cannot wait for all of us to get past this and resume my favorite part of our club functions, our monthly meetings.

Monthly Meetings We are awaiting word from the management at the Gold Coast when we will be allowed to resume our meetings. This could be a protracted delay as there are many variables to having large gatherings. Nevertheless, our meetings will only resume when it is completely safe for our members SNCCC Route 66 Bus Tour Our fun trip has been rescheduled for Saturday September 26. This date may well change depending on when the pandemic has subsided and is safe for us to gather. All the travel details are the same as our previous trips. We have 6 seats still available if anyone would like to join us. The price is $20. If you cannot make it please contact me at to make further arrangements. Rich Burgel will be adding some extra surprises on the trip with more prizes and give away's. My contact information is vergatos@msn.com if you wish to join us.

Please take care of yourself and your loved ones. Until we meet again keep busy and observe social distancing.

SILVER STRIKERS CLUB TOURNAMENT UPDATE

April 8, 2020

To our Silver Strike Family,

Due to the uncertainty of when we may open and the restrictions that may be put on us as far as gatherings in a room, we are going to have to move the June Silver Strike Tournament. At this time, we do not have a date set as we all wait for this virus to take it's course. All of us at the Four Queens hope you and your families are staying safe. When we have better knowledge as to what is going to happen, I will post the new date for the Tournament.

The Theme for the Tournament will be "NOSE CONE BEAUTIES"
