Your Chance to Pick Up Historic Gaming Chips at Bargain Prices!

Public bids invited at the Casino Collectibles Show auction June 13th in Las Vegas.

LAS VEGAS (May 23, 2024) — 200 lots of vintage casino chips and memorabilia will be up for bid at the 21st annual casino chip and collectables auction, sponsored by the only national club dedicated to preserving gaming history, the Casino Collectibles Association (CCA). The rare and unusual items up for auction can be seen in the auction catalog, available at the CCA website www.ccgtec.com/events/auction.aspx.

As a benefit of CCA membership (a mere $40 a year), club members can place their bids online. Non-members must bid in-person at the Casino Collectibles Show on Thursday, June 13 at the South Point Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas. The show is open to the public.

The in-person auction is conducted in two parts - a silent auction of 20 lots from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Thursday June 13th on the showroom floor in Exhibit Hall C. A live auction of all remaining lots starts at 7 p.m. the same day in Exhibit Hall D at South Point. All lots are available for viewing and bidding all day Thursday until 4 p.m. at the auction table on the show floor. Attendees are encouraged to register for the auction and collect their bidding card at the auction table during the day to save time. For non-members of the CCA, ID including proof of address is required to register. All donated lots start at just $5.

The World's Largest Casino Chip and Collectibles exhibition is open to the public and is a must-see event for anybody who is fascinated by gaming history. The show features the greatest single-location collection of artifacts and mementos that bring casino history, and memories, to life. Many are symbols of past gaming grandeur that are gone or becoming rare; souvenirs from when the casinos wanted customers to pocket their branded keepsakes as reminders of a memorable experience. Things like gaming chips of all denominations, gaming tokens, dice, slot cards, playing cards, matchbooks, ashtrays, menus, dinnerware, swizzle sticks, casino photos, post cards, signs, table felt – just about anything a casino could put its name on. Over 50 worldwide dealers will be on hand to offer attendees the unique opportunity to examine, buy, sell, or trade casino collectibles.

The exposition is the annual educational effort of the Casino Collectibles Association, a non-profit club with hundreds of members who passionately share the hobby of collecting and preserving the past. Show hours are June 13, 10 AM – 5 PM (admission $10), June 14, 9 AM – 4 PM (admission $5) and June 15, 9 AM – 4 PM (admission is free). Admission is free every day for First Responders, Active Military and all casino employees with appropriate ID.
