

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

See How the Origins of Las Vegas and Its Red-Light District are Forever Intertwined at the Casino Collectibles Show.

*Jami Rodman, author of The Las Vegas Madam and proprietor of the Red-Light District Tours shares the titillating history of early Vegas*

LAS VEGAS (February 16, 2026) — It's true — sex sells. And Jami Rodman, author of The Las Vegas Madam, knows more than most about the subject. She is now the proprietor of Las Vegas Guided Tours—an award-winning boutique company known for immersive, research-driven tours that bring to life the story of Block 16—the Red-Light District.

Rodman will host one of four fascinating and free educational seminars related to gaming history put on in conjunction with the Casino Collectibles Association's 33rd annual casino memorabilia show. The show runs Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 18-20, 2026, in Exhibit Hall D at the South Point Casino in Las Vegas.

Based on personal experience combined with a ton of historical research, Jami Rodman's presentation will paint the picture of how her firm's selection of guided and self-guided audio tours, with unabashedly honest storytelling, takes people deep into Vegas' risqué past. Her seminar will be presented across the hall from the show floor in the Joshua Room of the South Point Hotel at 3 PM on Friday June 19.

About the Show

The Casino Collectibles Association's 33rd annual show is a must-see event for anybody who is fascinated by gaming history. The show features the greatest single-location collection of the iconic artifacts and mementos that bring casino history, and memories, to life. Many are symbols of past gaming grandeur that are gone or becoming rare; souvenirs from when the casinos wanted customers to pocket their branded keepsakes as reminders of a memorable experience. Things like gaming chips of all denominations, gaming tokens, dice, slot cards, playing cards, matchbooks, ashtrays, menus, dinnerware, swizzle sticks, casino photos, post cards, signs, table felt – just about anything a casino could put its name on. Over 30 worldwide dealers will be on hand to offer attendees the unique opportunity to examine, buy, sell, or trade casino collectibles.

The exhibition is the annual educational effort of the Casino Collectibles Association, a non-profit club with hundreds of members who passionately share the hobby of collecting and preserving the past. Show hours are June 18, 10 AM – 5 PM (admission $10), June 19, 9 AM – 4 PM (admission $5), and admission is free June 20 and from 9 AM until 4 PM. Admission is free every day for First Responders, Active Military and Casino Employees with appropriate ID.
