Is Your Casino Souvenir Valuable?

Bring your casino collectibles to the World's Largest Casino Collectibles Show and find out!

LAS VEGAS (June 5, 2026) — Visitors to Las Vegas in the fifties, sixties and seventies took home all sorts of casino souvenirs - chips, tokens, or any of hundreds of items casinos of yesteryear used for promotional purposes. Today, more and more people are inheriting old casino memorabilia, often wondering if they have any value to collectors. This June there's no place better to get an answer than the exposition that gathers the biggest number of collectors of casino memorabilia all in one place.

That's at the World's Largest

Casino Chip and Collectibles Show. It's hosted by the Casino Collectibles Association in Exhibit Hall D at the South Point Casino in Las Vegas June 18 -20. The show provides a wonderful opportunity to have inherited casino memorabilia evaluated by dozens of expert dealers of casino artifacts who will be on hand.

Attendees are encouraged to bring their collection to the show to learn a little history on their items and a range of value – not an appraisal – from the casino collectibles world. Dealers at the show are often buyers as well as sellers.

More About the Show

The Casino Collectibles Association's annual show is open to the public and is a must-see event for anybody who is fascinated by gaming history. The show features the greatest single-location collection of iconic artifacts and mementos that bring casino history, and memories, to life. Many are symbols of past gaming grandeur that are gone or becoming rare; souvenirs from when the casinos wanted customers to pocket their branded keepsakes as reminders of a memorable experience. Things like gaming chips of all denominations, gaming tokens, dice, slot cards, playing cards, matchbooks, ashtrays, menus, dinnerware, swizzle sticks, casino photos, post cards, signs, table felt – just about anything a casino could put its name on. Over 30 worldwide dealers will be on hand to offer attendees the unique opportunity to examine, buy, sell, or trade casino collectibles.

Concurrent to the show, as part of the Casino Collectibles Association's 501(c)3 educational requirements, the club hosts four educational seminars which are offered to the public free of charge. Attendees can also participate in a live auction of hundreds of rare and unusual casino chips and other casino memorabilia. These bonus activities are held in the Joshua Room adjacent to the showroom floor. A complete show schedule is available at <https://www.ccgcc.com/documents/1422/2026-Convention-Schedule>.

The exhibition is the annual educational effort of the Casino Collectibles Association, a non-profit club with hundreds of members who passionately share the hobby of collecting and preserving the past. Show hours are June 18, 10am-5 (admission $10), June 19, 9am-4pm (admission $5), and admission is free June 20 and from 9am until 4pm. Admission is free every day for First Responders, Active Military, Casino Employees and Media with appropriate ID.
